The Seven Stages of Death

18 0 2

Chapter 1 by Jack Frost

Stage one: Dying. After all you have to do that before you can even begin to really learn what death is. My name is Alex Van Dike, and im a sophomore at high school. I was the nerd at the school. Every one hated me except for my best friends Jack, and Sam. We've known each other since third grade. I meet them when the jock of our school Andy Lockheart threw me, Jack, and Sam in a dumpster. We became friends after that. Like always we were shoved in lockers until one of the janitors had to come and rescue us. We went to class like we always have, and went home. But today was different i didn't go home like i normally did. Something in my mind told me to go to the park, and stay there for a while. I went there, and there was a little girl crying on the swing. I went over to help her so i asked what was wrong. She said " i lost my mommy and now i cant find her." i told her id help her and i started to walk towards the police station, but then i noticed she was just standing there with a smile on her face. I started to walk towards her but then i stopeed. She had blood coming from her eyes, and mouth. I started to back away but when i took a step back she lunged at me with her....claws? I felt a sharp pain in my chest and looked down. The little bitch ripped my heart from my chest, and fast enough so that i could watch. I grabbed the hole in my chest and fell to my knees. Right before i passed out she said "now i have the heart of the most powerful being in hell, see you there." Then every thing went black.
